ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
GRANTING MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE LATE COMMENTS

On February 15, 2002, the City of San Diego (City) filed a motion for leave to file late comments on the Alternate Proposed Decision of Commissioner Carl Wood regarding the Department of Water Resources (DWR) revenue requirement allocation. The City indicated that the comments were being filed one day late due to the extra hours required to consult with members of the City Council. The City argues that it is extraordinary that a political body be expected to collectively meet, confer, and comment on seven days' notice as required under Rule 77.6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. The City argues that no party would be prejudiced by the acceptance of its comments filed one day late.

Good cause having been shown, the motion of the City for leave to file late comments is granted.

IT IS RULED that the motion of the City of San Diego is hereby granted for leave to file comments one day late on the Alternate Proposed Decision of Commissioner Carl Wood regarding the Department of Water Resources revenue requirement allocation.

Dated March 6, 2002, at San Francisco, California.
